CURRENT SITUATION

Situation Summary:	Firefighters were successful in many areas of the fire today. Firefighters were able to hold the current fire perimeter line in some areas of the fire footprint. There is still the potential of moderate fire behavior. Tonight firefighters will continue to control the perimeter line. Firefighters will continue to provide structure protection throughout the night. Firefighters will continue to construct and reinforce both direct and indirect fire lines. Forecasted low relative humidity and dry fuel moistures combined with steep rugged terrain will continue to impede control operations.
